The Old River Road With A Magical Music Touch

Hello Airstreamers! As our dachshunds and we are planning an awesome Caravan, this 2-page communiqué will give you details and updates on a regular basis. For inquiring minds, kitty fees and additional info will be published in our next issue. Be patient and stay tuned for cool tunes!

Up Close and personal

INGO WERK

German-American, member of El Camino Real unit in Region 12, retired manufacturer, Rotarian, Elks Lodge member, Ham Radio.

MARY WERK

Cajun-American with 2nd home in Breaux Bridge Louisiana, retired Hospital Architect from Harbor-UCLA Med Center in Los Angeles.

COCO

Wirehaired dachshund, "Coco" Cocodrie means alligator in Cajun-French, born in Germany, 4 years old, passionate hunter.

DINO

From the "Rat Pack," Coco's brother, 3 years old, Europe's most popular small hunting dog, loving, rarest breed in America.

Introducing a New Caravan along the Old River Road, 1,400 miles from Duluth MN to New Orleans LA, from the weekend after Labor Day to Columbus Day. From the colorful Northern Fall Foliage to the Deep South, this is a spectacular journey with the mighty Mississippi at your side and music exploration on your mind.

This Caravan is primarily for lovers of modern American music. Although we include a few non-musical bonus options, like a Greyhound Bus Museum, or a Red Wing Shoe Museum, or a John Deere or Mark Twain, or a Coca-Cola Museum where the first Coke was bottled. Expect waterfront campgrounds whenever possible.

Organized by two wirehaired dachshunds means "Highway 61 Revisited" is pet-friendly. Caravan is limited to 25 Airstreams so that we can load up a 50-passenger bus wherever necessary. We will have plenty of free days, where you can pursue your own interest.

Bob Dylan's 1965 album "Highway 61 Revisited" inspired this Caravan, as this once major American highway still connects us to southern places known for their musical heritage. If you are into Mozart and Bach, this Caravan might not be for you.

NEXT CARAVAN: SEPTEMBER 12 THRU OCTOBER 12, 2020
